

Discovering North Yorkshire's Historic Gardens through the archives

Saturday 20 July 2019
10am to 5pm

North Yorkshire County Record Office, Malpas Road, Northallerton, DL7 8TB

Join staff of the County Record Office and members of the Yorkshire Gardens Trust to explore the historic designed landscapes of North Yorkshire and see original archive material from the collections.

Learn about the development of designed landscapes around private country houses, discover the range of sources available to investigate their history, see the results of recent research, and hear about Capability Brown in North Yorkshire.

Cost: £10; Please note lunch is not provided

For information and booking details, please contact us at

Email: archives@northyorks.gov.uk or Telephone: 01609 777585

Or book online at: www.archiveshop.northyorks.gov.uk

YORKSHIRE GARDENS TRUST

North Yorkshire
County Council

Discovering North Yorkshire's Historic Gardens through the archives

Saturday 20th July 2019

- 10.00 Introduction to the day
- 10.10 North Yorkshire's Garden Heritage: an overview – Marilyn Elm
- 11.00 Coffee
- 11.15 The Art of Being a Landscape Detective – Louise Wickham
- 12.15 Case study 1: The Gardens and Designed Landscape of Bolton Hall - Val Hepworth
- 12.45 Lunch (& opportunity to view original records)
- 1.45 Case study 2: The Gardens and Designed Landscape of Kirkby Fleetham - Gail Falkingham
- 2.15 Case study 3: The Gardens and Designed Landscape of Wood End, Thornton le Street – Margaret Mathews
- 2.45 Case study 4: The Gardens and Designed Landscape of Kiplin Hall – Gail Falkingham
- 3.15 Tea
- 3.45 Capability Brown in North Yorkshire – Karen Lynch
- 4.15 Close (further opportunity to view original records – till 5.00pm)

